By submitting an entry to this contest, sponsored by The NC Clean Energy Technology Center at North Carolina State University, the entrant acknowledges and agrees to all of the Official Rules (see attached). This form must be completed by a parent or legal guardian of an entrant under the age of 18 at the time of entry and submitted by an authorized representative of the school along with the student's photo. By submitting this form to be entered into the contest, the school's representative is certifying that all legally required permissions have been obtained from the student's parent or legal guardian(s).

The NC Clean Energy Technology Center at North Carolina State University is sponsoring a student art contest on the topic of ways that we can take action to reduce air pollution from cars and trucks. Students from kindergarten through college can submit artwork for this contest. Winners will have their artwork featured on billboards across North Carolina to help spread the word about ways that we all can help keep the air clean. All billboards will direct people to learn more at www.fuelwhatmatters.org.

Entries will be uploaded online to the public website WRAL.com and may display your child's name (first and last), school, grade, and name of artwork. The contest/image of artwork submission period begins at 9:00 a.m. ET on September 25, 2017 and closes at 11:59 p.m. ET on November 26, 2017. The voting period for approved submitted artwork will be November 27, 2017 at 9 a.m. through December 10, 2017 at 11:59 p.m. By entering the contest, entrants agree to be bound by the Official Rules (see attached). By signing this form and providing a photo/image/artwork to be uploaded online, you certify that you are the parent or legal guardian of the entrant, the photo/image/artwork is original and that the student named below is the sole holder of any and all copyrights and other intellectual property rights in the photo/image/artwork, and you give consent for the student named below to enter the contest and for the photo/image/artwork and your child's information provided below to be publicly displayed on www.WRAL.com. CBC New Media, LLC/WRAL.com reserve the right to change the rules at any time to ensure the fair administration of the contest and compliance with applicable laws. If the student named below is a winner, CBC New Media, LLC/WRAL.com and the sponsor may publicize and/or broadcast his/her name (first and last), school, grade, and name of artwork. Winning entries will be displayed on public billboards throughout NC and may include the child's name (first and last), school, grade, and name of artwork. Do not sign this form and allow your child to submit an entry if you do not agree to this publicity and display.
